Petitioner, a state prisoner proceeding pro se, filed a writ of habeas corpus pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2254, challenging his state conviction out of Santa Clara County. Respondent filed an answer on June 15, 2020. Dkt. No. 44. After being granted a second extension of time, Petitioner's traverse was due by February 11, 2021. Dkt. No. 50. On February 8, 2021, Petitioner filed a motion for a motion for stay and abeyance under “Rhines v. Webber, 125 S. Ct. 1528 (2008),” stating that lack of access to the law library due to the pandemic makes it impossible for him to file a proper traverse. Dkt. No. 51.

The motion for an indefinite stay is DENIED. First of all, a stay under Rhines is appropriate when a petitioner has shown good cause to return to state courts to exhaust potentially meritorious claims that were unexhausted at the time a federal habeas action was filed. Rhines v. Weber, 544 U.S. 269, 277-78 (2005). This is not the situation that

1 Petitioner faces. Accordingly, a stay under Rhines is not applicable. Furthermore, the 2 Court recognizes that despite challenges presented by the pandemic, other actions filed by 3 prisoners in pro se have been steadily proceeding. Accordingly, the motion for an 4 indefinite stay until the pandemic passes is DENIED.

5 In the interest of justice, Petitioner shall be granted a third extension of time to file a 6 traverse. Petitioner shall file a traverse no later than fifty-six (56) days from the date
7 this order is filed. Petitioner may continue to file requests for additional time as needed, 8 but he must continue to make a good faith effort to prosecute this action in a diligent 9 manner.

10 This order terminates Docket No. 51.
